

We have troupes dying today and many more have died before them, trying to keep the freedoms for Americans. I too am a disabled Vietnam combat vet and wonder to this day why only the rich and powerful seem to have more freedoms than most others.

Please don't let the NAB bully you into this. I hear all the time that Competition is the best thing for business. So I say "let the competition Begin ."

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sam Lock